

About this booklet

This is a pocket record of things one senator has said, in public, on the record. Nothing here is paraphrased. Each quotation carries its source so you can check it yourself.

FOREWORD

How to use this book

Read one page while the train pulls out. Read the source line under it. If a quotation surprises you, look it up — the citation is there for exactly that reason.

CHAPTER 1

On Wages and Penalty Rates

What she has said about what your hours are worth.

I have heard, from people coming through my office, that the Australian people do not want the penalty rates cut. I will support what the people want. Over 75 per cent do not want the penalty rates cut, and I support that.

CHAPTER 2

On Unions and the Right to Organise

What she has said about the organisations that won the weekend.

ON UNIONS

In the past 30 years, trade union membership has fallen from more than 40 per cent of all Australian workers to less than 13 per cent, yet over the years the unions have used their Labor puppets to force union membership on people who don't need or want it. They don't do this to look after workers' rights — no-one believes that nonsense anymore.

CHAPTER 3

On Casual Work and Job Security

What she has said about knowing whether you work next week.

ON JOB SECURITY

Placeholder — position on casual conversion rights.

CHAPTER 4

On Sacking People

What she has said about how easily you can lose the job.

ON DISMISSAL

Placeholder — statement that businesses need greater power to dismiss staff.

National Press Club, Canberra · date to be confirmed

CHAPTER 5

On Workplace Safety

What she has said about getting home in one piece.

ON SAFETY

Placeholder — remark on workplace health and safety regulation as red tape.

CHAPTER 6

On Superannuation

What she has said about the wage you get paid later.

ON SUPER

Placeholder — position on the superannuation guarantee rate.

CHAPTER 7

On Immigration and Race

What she has said about who counts as Australian.

ON RACE

I believe we are in danger of being swamped by Asians. Between 1984 and 1995, 40 per cent of all migrants coming into this country were of Asian origin. They have their own culture and religion, form ghettos and do not assimilate.

ON RACE

We are in danger of being swamped by Muslims who bear a culture and ideology that is incompatible with our own.

ON RACE

I and most Australians want our immigration policy radically reviewed and that of multiculturalism abolished.

House of Representatives Hansard, 10 September 1996

ON RACE

I was right about immigration and multiculturalism in 1996. Everything I warned about has come to pass. I'm right today.

CHAPTER 8

On First Nations Australians

What she has said about the country's oldest communities.

ON FIRST NATIONS

I am fed up to the back teeth with the inequalities that are being promoted by the government and paid for by the taxpayer.

ON FIRST NATIONS

I have done research on benefits available only to Aboriginals and challenge anyone to tell me how Aboriginals are disadvantaged when they can obtain three and five per cent housing loans denied to non-Aboriginals.

Help will be given on the basis of genuine need, not race. No more special privileges — equal rights for all, and special rights for none. There will be no more taxpayer-funded welcome to country rituals.

CHAPTER 9

On Women and Family

What she has said about half the workforce.

ON WOMEN

Placeholder — remark on paid parental leave.

CHAPTER 10

On Climate and Energy Jobs

What she has said about the industries people work in next.

That the Senate notes that grocery prices have skyrocketed due to net-zero policies, energy costs, foreign corporate land ownership and massive regulatory costs faced by farmers dealing with red, green, black and blue tape.

CHAPTER 11

On Public Servants

What she has said about the people who run the country's services.

ON PUBLIC SERVICES

Placeholder — remark on the size of the public service.

National Press Club, Canberra · date to be confirmed

CHAPTER 12

On Health and Science

What she has said when the evidence was inconvenient.

I rise to speak to One Nation's legislation to end the pandemic of discrimination against Australians who stood for the right to refuse COVID-19 vaccinations.

CHAPTER 13

On the Press and Democracy

What she has said about being asked a question.

ON THE PRESS

Shamefully, we are now witnessing another trial by media as journalists publish the claims of a Toowoomba woman now accusing Mr Lehrmann of sexual assault.
